

Celebrating Success in Perioperative Care

Friday 22nd November 2019 Wolfson Hall, Royal College of Surgeons (Edinburgh)

Time	Item	Speaker
08:50	Registration
09:30	Welcome and introductions
09:40	Session 1: Teamwork and pathway redesign 011 GEARS: Helping our patients on a faster road to recovery 014 The ERAS Working Group - A Team Approach To Success 025 ERAS protocol introduced for elective arthroplasty with reduction in median length of stay in hospital 027 Development, implementation and sustaining of ERAS in colorectal patients	Susanna Walker, Royal Marsden Hospital Dorna Taylor, Victoria Hospital, Fife Jasmine Samuel, Forth Valley Royal Hospital Soteroula Kanari, Sandwell and West Birmingham NHS Trust
10:40	Coffee, poster walk and voting
11:10	Session 2: Prehabilitation 007 UK's First Mobilisation of a patient with femoral Intra-aortic balloon pump (IABP) 008 Establishment of Prehabilitation Service with minimal funding 016 The MILE (My Integrated Lifestyle and Exercise) Programme: implementing multimodal prehabilitation into routine clinical care for gynaecology patients 018 Implementation of a perioperative medicine service to improve patient fitness for major surgery	Natalie Lambie, Golden Jubilee National Hospital Tarannum Rampal, Medway NHS Foundation Trust Louisa Shovel, Royal Marsden Hospital Imogen Fecher-Jones, University Hospital Southampton
12:10	Lunch, poster walk and voting
13:00	Session 3: Quality improvement, spread and adoption 003 Emergency Laparotomy Collaborative - reduction in mortality and LoS 022 Implementation of Enhanced Recovery After Surgery + (ERAS+) across Greater Manchester (GM) 023 Successful Scaling up of ERAS+ in Greater Manchester (GM) 029 EROSS: A national approach to Enhanced Recovery for Obstetric Surgery in Scotland	Geeta Aggarwal, Royal Surrey County Hospital Rachel Sloman, NHS Transformation Unit/ Manchester University NHS FT Emma Dale, Stockport NHS Foundation Trust Andrew Clark, University Hospital Crosshouse
14:00	Tea, poster walk and final voting
14:30	Session 4: Patient education 013 Implementation of Enhanced Recovery for Elective Caesarean Section 017 Smart Journey through elective caesarean section 030 Face-to-face preparation class for mothers having planned caesarean delivery aids embedding of EROS principles.	Gordon Peters, University Hospital Wishaw Venkat Bhaskar, Victoria Hospital, Fife Kerry Litchfield, Princess Royal Maternity
15:10	Keynote Presentation
15:40	Presentation of prizes
16:00	Evaluation and close	