

The way forward for Enhanced Recovery in the UK

Nader Francis

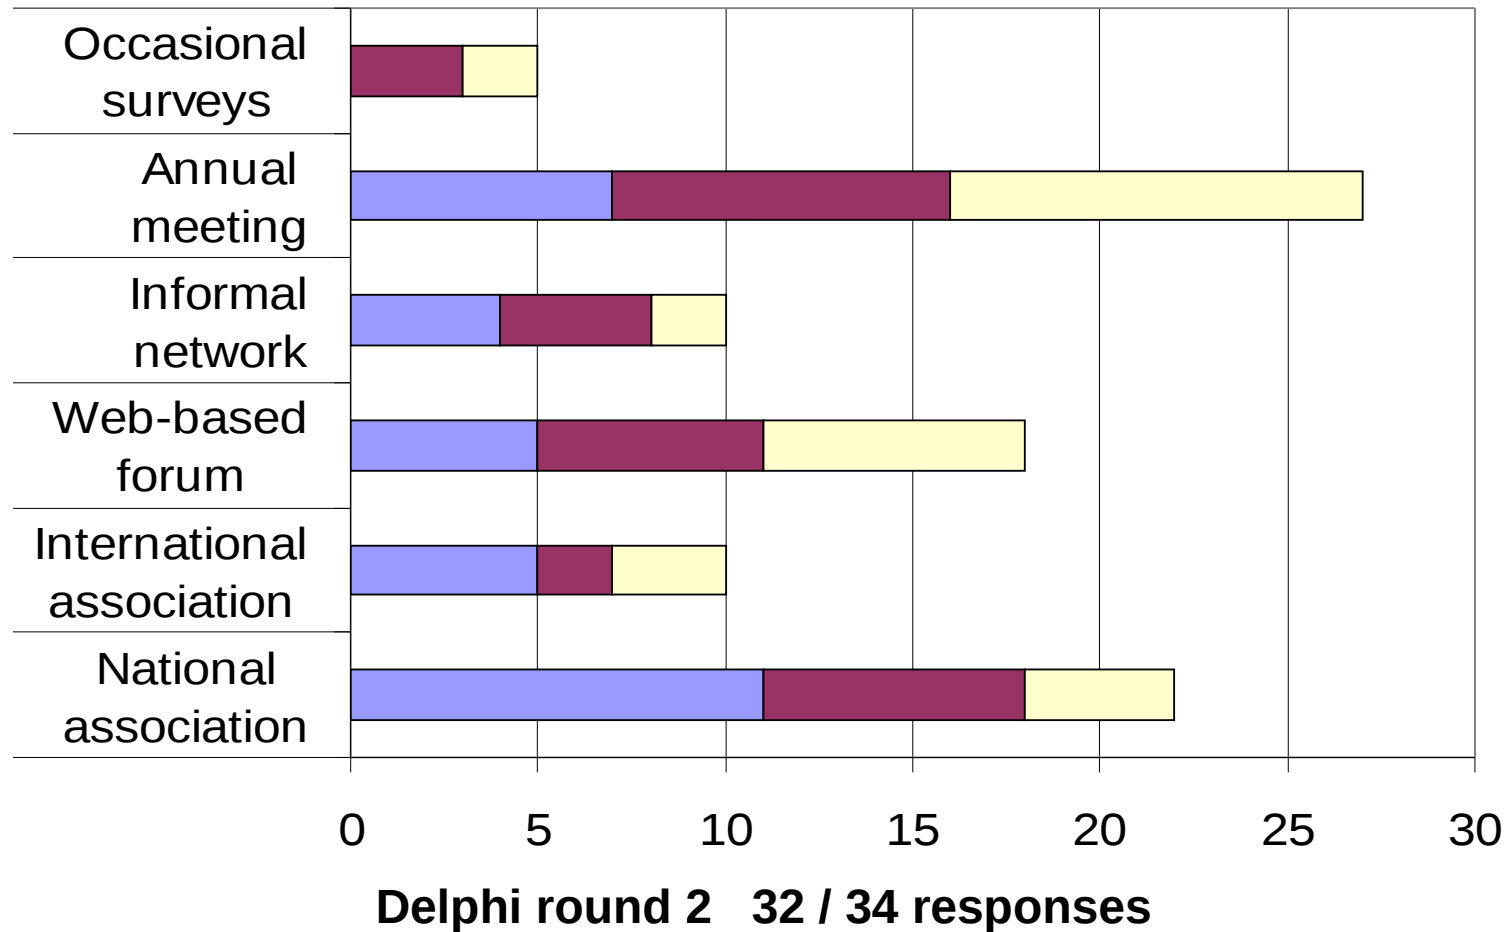

Yeovil District Hospital

September 2011

Delphi study

- First two rounds: representative experts from 35 trusts in UK (ER embedded > 12 months, March 2010)
- Third round: workshop with interactive voting
- Aim to obtain consensus views on various areas in ER including national network/ annual meeting

Delphi study: Future Networking

Delphi study: Future Networking

Do you agree with this statement?

Future networking for the ER groups in the UK will be through an annual meeting, a national network, supported by a web based forum.

- Agree (100%)
- Disagree

Delphi round 3, Interactive voting 25 / 25 responses

ER Network: What are the priorities?

Delphi round 3, Interactive voting 25 / 25 responses

Structure of the organisation

- Initial meeting London January 2011
 - Monty Mythen
 - Olle Ljungqvist
 - Robin Kennedy
 - Alan Horgan
 - Ken Fearon
 - Nader Francis
- ERAS-UK a British chapter of ERAS society
- Free membership

1st International Conference on Enhanced Recovery, Sept 2010, Bristol

ERAS- UK mission statement

21st January 2011

- A non-profit making, charitable British chapter of the International ERAS society
- To bring together the different disciplines included in ER in the UK to share best practice and promote evidence based ER across surgical specialties

Activities of the organisation

- Annual conference Bristol 2010/ Bath 2011
- ER series in colorectal; orthopaedics, urology and gynaecology
- Collaboration with ERAS
- Website:
enhancedrecoveryhub.org

Get involved

- Post conference on-line discussion forum
- On-line membership available by November 2011
- Looking for members for research and education committees
- Website: enhancedrecoveryhub.org